

The SCS program committee has approved the Moisa-sponsored panel for the 150th Annual Meeting at San Diego, to take place on Saturday, January 5th, with the title “Music and the Divine”. The panelists will be the following:

Pavlos Sfyroeras	Middlebury College, VT	The Music of Sacrifice: Between Mortals and Immortals
Spencer Klavan	Magdalen College, Oxford, UK	Movements Akin to the Soul's: Human and Divine Mimēsis in Plato's Music
Victor Gysembergh	Freie Universität Berlin, Germany	Eudoxus of Cnidus on Consonance, Reason/Ratio, and Divine Pleasure
Noah Davies-Mason	City University of New York (CUNY), Graduate Center	The Silent Gods of Lucretius
Francesca Modini	King's College, London, UK	Singing for the Gods under the Empire: Music and the Divine in the Age of Aelius Aristides
Andreas Kramarz	Legion of Christ College of Humanities, Cheshire, CT	Response

The detailed program will be shared as soon as it is available.

Thank you very much!

Yours sincerely, Fr Andreas Kramarz, LC